

When I Was the Most Beautiful

MBC

DRAMA

70mins X 16eps

A man faces the horrible situation of becoming the brother-in-law of his first crush whom he thought was destined to be with him. He believed she was his soul mate and could give her everything he had, but they become family when she chooses his brother instead of him. Then his brother goes missing. She is still his brother's wife, but the feelings and desires he had suppressed starts surfacing. The love of a woman and two brothers that cross over time and destiny makes us question the salvation of the human soul.

| DIRECTOR | Oh Kyung Hoon "Good Thieves"(2017) "My Mom"(2015), Song Yeon Hwa

| WRITER | Cho Hyun Gyung "Grand Prince"(2018) "Maids"(2014)

Oh Ye Ji

| STARRING |
Im Soo Hyang

Trainee Teacher→Ceramic artist, Jin's Wife

She doesn't open up easily even when she is lonely and fakes her bright personality. However, she still has a defensive instinct she was born with. She goes to Hwan's school as a trainee teacher, meets his family and becomes a trainee of Sung Gon, well-known as a cooking potter. Jin is Hwan's brother and he approaches Ye Ji, lighting her up like the sun. She falls in love with him before she knows it. However, when they are still newlyweds, Jin leaves for a rally. When he doesn't return, Ye Ji frantically searches all over a foreign country for her husband. She can't accept the fact that Jin is gone, but her brother-in-law Hwan, who can barely handle his own sadness, brings her back home.

Seo Hwan

| STARRING |
Ji Soo

High school student→Architectural designer, Jin's Younger Brother

Hwan was the one who met Ye Ji first. He was also the one who loved her first. However, she falls in love and marries his brother. He tried hard to protect her from the mischievous boys at a countryside school, but wasn't able to protect her from the man he should have been worried about. As an effort to break away from his destiny to love his brother's wife, he tries dating other women and living in a different county, but he always ends up by Ye Ji's side. He is furious with his mother that makes Ye Ji fulfill her duties as a daughter-in-law when Jin might as well be dead. He also can't accept the fact that Ye Ji is foolishly taking care of her father-in-law when her husband isn't present. All this provokes him.

Seo Jin

| STARRING |
Ha Seok Jin

Racer→Rallyist

Jin becomes the youngest winner of the Super Race and manages to stay on top with outstanding records in competitions in Korea and abroad. He soon becomes the best rallyist in Asia. He becomes a professional rallyist and challenges himself to rallies in other countries that test human limits. The day he was discharged for the army, he meets Ye Ji at a workshop and follows his instincts until she becomes his. He actually knows Hwan is interested in her, but his brother is a minor. Jin knows his decision, love and marriage would be a cruel test for Hwan. Sadly, Jin's desires and void are not satisfied with Ye Ji. He longs to leave for a rally, leaving his beloved wife behind. He ends up getting in a tragic accident. He goes missing for several years and makes his family live a nightmare.

Carrie Jung

| STARRING |
Hwang Seung Eon

Motors team sponsor manager, Jin's former partner

She is a former super model living in New York. She represents CEO Bang, who is interested in races, rallies and everything related to cars and motorbikes. She holds and sponsors various events and that's how she meets and falls for Jin, the leader of a team they sponsor. The relationship moves quickly, but she has no intention of settling down with one man. After breaking up with him, she continues sponsoring his team while he is in the army and obsesses over him, but is heartbroken when she hears Jin is marrying someone else. She wants to see him even after he gets married and is furious when Jin rejects her.

